

St Leonard's Church Notices & Order of Service Sunday 16th January, 2022

Welcome to St Leonard's

A warm and friendly welcome to this morning's worship service, which will be led by our Associate Minister, Rev Steven Sass.

If you are visiting this morning, we hope that you will feel at home and we pray that together we will enjoy God's blessing. As per current Coronavirus guidelines masks should continue to be worn within the church premises.

The words of the hymns will be displayed on the large screens situated either side of the pulpit.

The words of the Scripture readings will also appear on the screens - or, if you prefer, you can follow them in the Pew Bible. This week's Scripture Reader is Linda Nicol.

As you will have noted, the offering plate is available for contributions in the west transept as you enter and leave the church.

Unfortunately due to current Covid restrictions imposed by the Scottish Government in respect of household mixing we are not at present able to offer a time of fellowship over tea and coffee in the hall after the service.

What's On This Week

Once again Covid restrictions are preventing many of our normal activities from taking place this week.

There is an expectation that some of the restrictions may be lifted on 24th January so fingers crossed that is the case and we can get back to the things we enjoy.

Next Sunday

Our morning worship next Sunday will be led by our Minister, Rev Donald Prentice at the usual time of 10.30am.

Online Services

Online services continue to be available for viewing each week via You Tube or our church website or Facebook page.

This week the service is led by Rev Steven Stass and next Sunday by our Minister.

Calling All Bakers and Cooks!

You may recall a couple of months ago our fundraising Committee put out a request for your favourite recipes to include in a St Leonard's Recipe Book.

Whilst a few of you have responded many of you seem a little reticent about coming forward. So, come on, don't be shy - tell us about your best bakes, scrumptious puddings, tasty soups etc. We know they're all out there!

Please pass on your recipes, either handwritten or sent digitally, to Karine Carson or Lauranne Grant as soon as possible. All proceeds from the sale of the book will go to church funds.

He Knocks

When Jesus comes calling He knocks loud and clear at the door of your heart, for He wants you to hear
The message He'll bring to you, full of great news,
you should open the door, you should never refuse.

Just open the door of your heart, let Him in,
He'll cleanse you and free you from all of your sin.
It's not for his own good that He's standing there,
the good of the sinner is His only care.

He knocks at the door for He wants to come in,
but you keep Him waiting, your heart's full of sin.
A while He will wait then He will go away,
a chance you have missed that you'll pay for one day.

He knocks at the door of the young or old,
of the weak and the strong, of the meek and the bold.
He knocks at the door of great princes and kings
He stands and He knocks, great blessings he brings.
